

ATCS Ryan Hollinshead, USN
Command Senior Chief
Air Test and Evaluation Squadron TWO THREE

Senior Chief Ryan O. Hollinshead was born in McConnellsburg, Pennsylvania. He graduated from McConnellsburg High School in 1992. In July 1992, he enlisted into the United States Navy and departed for recruit training in San Diego, California. After graduation from recruit training, he attended and graduated AVA "A" school, and AVSI in Millington, Tennessee.

His first duty assignment was AIMD, Keflavik, Iceland from October 1993 to May 1996. During his tour at AIMD he served as a Micro-Miniature repair Technician. In August 1996, He transferred to VPU-1 (the Old Buzzards), Brunswick, Maine, where he served as Configurations Logistics LPO. During his second tour to AIMD, Keflavik Iceland in 2003, he was promoted to Chief Petty Officer. He later reported to NRD, Pittsburgh in April 2004, where he served as Recruiter in Charge. Upon his successful recruiting tour, he transferred to VFA-211 (Fighting Checkmates) in 2007, where he was promoted to Senior Chief Petty Officer and was selected for the Command Senior Chief Program.

In October 2009, he graduated from the Navy Senior Enlisted Academy. He attended the Command Master Chief course in August 2010. He also completed his Associates Degree in Science from Thomas Edison State College that same year. In September 2010, he reported onboard USS CARR (FFG-52) and assumed the duties as Command Senior Chief.

His personal decorations include Navy and Marine Corps Commendation Medal, Navy and Marine Corps Achievement Medal, Navy Good Conduct Medal and various service and campaign awards.